Weaving Class

Instructor: Susan Yasi

Ages 12 & up

Beginning Rigid Heddle Weaving I

Come join us in creating a soft warm scarf using the Rigid Heddle Loom. When you register you will choose two colors one for the main color and one for the stripes. This class will meet three, 2-hour sessions in which you’ll learn how to weave on the loom, weaving terminology, the parts of the loom and how to remove a project for the loom, and finishing techniques. Everyone completing this class will have made a lovely scarf to keep. All tools and materials provided. Just bring your own sweet self.

Mondays, Feb 10-Feb 24, March 9-March 23, April 6–April 20
Time: 6:15-8:15pm
Location: The Center 45 Neckel Ct
Fee: $50.00/session, City Resident $45.00/session (all supplies included)

Instructor Bio: Susan Yasi is a Bridgewater University in Bridgewater, MA. Susan has always been intrigued by the idea of taking simple materials and creating useful, three-dimensional objects that become enjoyable part of everyday life. First trained as a Potter and now interested in the Fiber Arts, she busies herself (when not weaving fabric) by planning her Dyer’s garden, weaving Lavender Bottles and working on the restoration of her 1880’s era Farmhouse in the charming City of Milan.

Rigid Heddle Weaving II

Building on what you’ve learned in Rigid Heddle I, this class will cover warping the loom using a technique known as Direct Warping. You will create a complex project using color and weave patterning in 100% machine washable cotton. Lace weaving techniques using pick-up sticks will also be taught. Students will choose colors on the first day of class and all materials and tools will be provided. Everyone completing this class will take home a 100% cotton tablerunner to keep. We will meet in four, two-hour sessions. Bring only yourself and a creative mind. Must have taken Beginning Rigid Heddle Weaving I.

Tuesdays, March 10-March 31, April 6–April 28
Time: 6:15-8:15pm
Location: The Center 45 Neckel Ct
Fee: $70.00, City Resident $65.00 (all supplies included)
